In photography there is

SCOTT PARSONS

PHOTOGRAPHER

Years of studying and playing around with engines fuelled my keen passion for cars. Combine this with my love for photography and creative personality, and I have found myself creating the type of vehicle photos that I once only dreamt of.

Whats so different about mine? I do them at night!

2021 Mercedes-Benz C300

Light painting here allows clear and accurate colour representation while also providing vivid contrast from the vehicle's surroundings.

The real beauty of this Mercedes-Benz C300 can be seen in it's interior. Is there any better way to showcase this mood lighting?

BLING

If you've spent all that money on chrome and lights, and spent all that time making it sparkle, why not show it off?

Nothing shows off the bling like a night shot!
